1. At a recent meeting of cell leaders of the Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario (MNR), which was held in the home of Cuadros Sanchez, Calle Almirante Grau No. 416, all leaders were advised that approximately twenty youths, all members of MNR, were soon to be selected from the cells for infiltration into various government offices. The possibility of this planned infiltration is believed to have increased at the present time owing to recent Cabinet shifts involving a majority of the ministers. The names of those selected to attempt this infiltration are not yet known.

2. The MNR wishes to supplement its espionage agents within the government, to broaden sources of information, and to increase the channels of Party courier systems between MNR officials, sympathetic government employees, and MNR members at present in exile.

3. MNR cell leaders were also instructed to continue street fighting plans since this project had met with commendable success.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
